 Join us after Mass for the rededication of the Grotto of Our Lady of Martyrs, an extraordinary depiction of our Martyrs (L) by sculptor Timothy Schmalz outside the Visitor Center. The Martyrs ascend to heaven on angels' wings, on the shoulders of Our Lady of Martyrs. Take advantage of the photo op with the scenic Mohawk Valley in the background.

Visit our fabulous new website! www.ourladyofmartyrsshrine.org Soon to include a 3D virtual tour of Coliseum, Museum, and Gift Shop thanks to Joe Altieri (R)

(R) New signs on Route 5S at both Shrine Road and Noeltner Road entrances. More signage on the grounds soon to be posted.

(L) Several days of tree trimming precarious or dead branches made the Shrine safer and well-manicured.

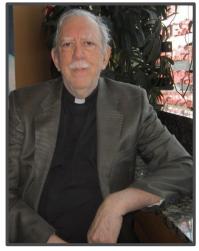

Memorial Day Weekend at the Shrine saw three ethnic pilgrimages: (Below) Filipino Pilgrimage from Ontario, Canada;

(L) Fr Jorge Reyes with Spanish Apostolate from Troy, NY; (R) Fr Bao Nguyen, S.J. with Vietnamese pilgrimage from Baltimore.

Hearing the praises of God in prayer and song, and the words of consecration in different language is vivifying: ". . .with his blood he purchased for God men of race and tongue, people and nation" (Rev. 5:9).
